Questions linger

Planners delay golf course vote

By JIM CARAVALLAH
Of The Roman Staff

The Romulus Planning Commission has delayed making a decision on the controversial rezoning of the city's only 18-hole golf course for shopping center use until a special meeting May 28.

Following a 2½-hour public hearing on the rezoning of the Shady Hollow Golf Course for a commercial use, and a 30-minute caucus by the commissioners, Planner Donald Treder made a motion to table the matter "due to the many unanswered questions surrounding the zoning."

The public hearing drew hundreds of interested Romulus residents including the developer of a rival shopping center plan, at least one city councilman and the city's former mayor to protest the plan to turn the golf course at Wayne and Wick roads into a proposed shopping center known as Wickway Plaza and senior citizen housing.

Former Romulus Mayor Hyle J. Carmichael presented the commission with petitions signed by more than 200 residents protesting the rezoning.

"I know by past experience that persons in Romulus favor recreation," Carmichael said. "Therefore I'm opposed to any plan which would do away with the golf course."

Romulus City Councilman James C. Stewart reiterated a public position he has held in opposition to the rezoning.

"I'm not against a shopping center or senior citizen housing, but I am against using the golf course land," he said.

Melvin Morgan, partner in the apparently dead Romulus Metro Plaza shopping center complex slated for land almost directly across Wayne Road from the golf course, protested the course's use as a commercial district.

"It should be moved 1,000 feet down Wayne Road to a better location," Morgan said.

Some residents turned out to voice their approval of the concept.

Said one senior citizen, Edward Wallace: "I'm fortunate enough to have my own place. But I have friends who cannot live in their own home and need this housing more than a golf course."

"As former president of the Romulus Senior Citizen Club I know of the need, and I favor the construction."

Said another senior citizen: "Senior citizens in this community need a place to shop that is somewhat nearby."

"Not everyone can come to Wayne or Belleville to shop."

Not one person who voiced disapproval of the rezoning indicated they opposed the construction of a shopping center.

However, 17 of the 31 who spoke opposed the use of the golf course, according to informal statistics.

Romulus City Attorney William Mosier said that the Romulus Rotary Club has taken formal opposition to the plan. Romulus resident Charles Dick added that the Romulus Jaycees oppose the use of the golf course for a shopping center.

Several residents living in the area of the golf course indicated they did not favor the rezoning.

One asked: "Who wants to look at a shopping center?"

The Wickway proposal calls for the use of 10 acres of land for a senior citizen housing complex with between 200 and 400 units, the use of 15 acres of land for commercial buildings and the holding of the final five acres of a proposed 20 acre commercial site for an undesignated commercial use.

Recreation or shopping?

Hundreds of Romulus residents turned out for a public hearing Monday on rezoning the Shady Hollow Golf course from a single family home designation to a general use. Golf course owner Alexander Dul said he planned on selling the facility for some other use, however, many residents protested the change to a shopping center at the hearing. The Romulus Planning Commission tabled until May 28 a decision on the rezoning request. — The Romulus Roman photo.

Golf course owner Alexander Dul sent a letter to the Planning Commission urging approval of the rezoning. Dul claimed, in the correspondence, that he would lose at least four holes on the course when Wayne Road is widened to 120 feet of right-of-way and that the course served only 50 golfers from Romulus of more than 3,500 who played it last year.

Mayor Terry L. Troutt reiterated

his support of the shopping center plan, provided the city is assured of substantial commercial investment in the center and provided it is constructed within six months of the rezoning.

Public meet to air budget

Romulus residents will have an opportunity tonight to voice their concerns on a proposed city budget which will show a drop of $160,000 in expenditures in the city's general fund while it will show salary increases for elected officials and the establishment of a fund to handle special drainage problems.

Mayor Terry L. Troutt's proposed $4.4 million general fund budget will show a recommendation of a $5,832 increase in the mayor's salary, a $4,000 increase in the city clerk's salary and a $4,000 increase in the treasurer's salary coupled with a $7,167 increase in the total council budget for salaries.

The mayor's increase would bring his salary to $23,332 and the clerk and treasurer increases would bring their salaries to the $16,000 range.

Troutt said in recommending the pay raises: "This a long overdue action for the elected officials, since they haven't had their salaries increased since the City Charter was adopted in 1970."

Salary scales were $17,500 for mayor, and $12,000 each for clerk and treasurer in past budgets.

Troutt also has included a special fund in his budget which will be set aside to handle special drainage problems, such as the one which plagued residents of the Windcliff subdivision near Wayne and Wick roads for the past two months.

The $160,000 drainage fund will be available, according to Troutt, to provide minor funding to solve individual drainage problems.

Taxes will not be raised above the 5-mill level for operating expenses, however, the City Council already has approved a 6-tenths mill increase for drainage costs in this year's budget.

The increase will leave total city taxes at the 12.6-mill level.

To lift fund freeze

Meet to plot counter WCRC plan strategy

Elected officials in Romulus will meet Memorial Day to map their strategy in opposing a proposal by the Wayne County Road Commission (WCRC) to spend $3.9 million in federal funds to pay for work completed on expanding Detroit Metropolitan Airport.

The Memorial Day meeting with attorney Jerrold Fadem, will be in preparation for hearings scheduled for May 27 before U.S. District Court Judge Cornelia J. Kennedy on the Road Commission's request to lift the judge's freeze on federal funds used for airport construction.

Judge Kennedy ruled two months ago that the WCRC was in error when drawing up plans for the extension of the main northeast to southwest runway in the airport 12,000 feet to Eureka Road since the governing agency for the airport hadn't filled an environmental impact statement on the aspects of runway expansion prior to beginning construction.

"I don't think the city's opposition to the proposal to free the money will be too vocal, providing the Road Commission helps the city in other areas," Mayor Terry L. Troutt said.

"One thing I'd like to see is the county come up with funds to compensate residents who have suffered through airport expansion — particularly those who can't sell their homes because they lie in a 'high noise' area designated by the Federal Housing Administration."

"If a home lies in that sort of an area — generally beyond the end of runways from the airport — he can't obtain a GI or FHA loan, making it more difficult to sell the home."

Troutt said the elected officials — from both the city government and the Romulus Board of Education — will be asked whether they favor a plan to pursue obtaining repayment from the WCRC for city facilities lost in airport expansion.

"I think we're in a good position now," Troutt said. "And I'd like to see both the city and the schools get together to obtain some aid to escape the evils of the airport."

The WCRC has requested the funds to pay contractors who performed work on the runway expansion project during the more than eight months of trial and deliberations on the environmental case in U.S. District Court.

Obtaining permission for the use of the funds may not be routine, according to city attorneys, since the WCRC was warned that work done on the airport during the trial was done "at risk" and may not be liable for compensation under the ruling.

Troutt said he will favor contesting the claim on the funding, since he believes the plan of the WCRC is to have so much money spent on the runway expansion project that the work could not be stopped without creating a great waste.

Building totally destroyed

Officials of the state fire marshal's office still are sifting through the debris of this Salvation Army storage building to find the cause of a $500,000 fire which gutted the structure last week. Fire fighters from Romulus were on hand for nearly eight hours to try to halt the progress of the blaze at Vining Road near I-94. The building was used to store upholstery materials. — The Romulus Roman photo.

For national award

Belleville debaters attend Virginia meet

Four high school seniors from Royal Oak Kimball and Belleville High schools represented Michigan in the National Bicentennial Debates held in Williamsburg, Va. as part of a nationwide program, aimed at involving thousands of young Americans in debate and public speaking competition.

Michigan's entrants were selected in finals held in Ann Arbor following extensive regional competition throughout the state. Two brothers, John and Charles Dougherty, from Belleville High School along with Kent Martini and Steve Yokich of Royal Oak Kimball High School were picked to represent Michigan.

State Sen. Gilbert Bursley, a member of the Michigan Bicentennial Commission which sponsored the students' trip to Williamsburg, presented each student with a certificate of achievement.

Although neither team reached the quarterfinals at the national debates, the students and their coaches, Jayne Greco of Royal Oak and David White of Belleville, were awarded Armetale plates inscribed with the seal of the Bicentennial Council of the Thirteen Original States in recognition of their outstanding performances.

The annual debates in Williamsburg will be held through 1981, the 200th anniversary of the triumph at Yorktown which marked the end of most revolutionary activity in America.

The National Bicentennial Debates also gave each participating student an opportunity to study the history of the Williamsburg area.

Bill might lower park permit fees

Seniors, disabled may get lower rate

Michigan's disabled citizens and an increased number of the state's senior citizens will be able to purchase annual state park permits at a reduced rate, if legislation introduced by State Sen. William Faust (D-13th Dist.) is enacted into law.

The Westland Democrat has introduced a bill that would lower the annual permit fee from $5 to $1 for disabled persons or persons 62 years of age or older.

Current state law provides the discount for persons 65 years or older.

"With the trend to earlier retirement in many industries, we have more and more people living on fixed incomes at an earlier age," Faust said. "My bill would provide the same discount to these retirees that already is available to other senior citizens.

"I think that the state should extend this discount to disabled Michigan citizens as well. These people have enough expenses with specially equipped cars and other equipment. I think we ought to enable them to enjoy the state parks at a reduced rate."

Jaycees log new enrollees

Three new members have joined the Belleville-Van Buren Jaycees.

At a recent "M-Night" meeting, Tad Canning, Stewart Hamel and Dave Greca signed up with what has become the fastest-growing Jaycee club in Michigan.

The three joined the club in time to be counted toward the "Michigan Jaycee Membership Improvement Award" given to the Jaycees at a state meeting May 10.

Jaycees Jerry Willmon and Sherman Elliott received the award on behalf of the organization.

The Jaycees plan a busy month in June, having volunteered to host the District 30 Jaycee softball tournament and fielding a team in the Belleville Industrial League.

A family trip also is planned for June 28 and 29 to Cedar Point.

Jerry Willmon is handling arrangements, and can be called at 461-6244.

In addition to regular June activities, the Jaycees will be gearing toward their biggest activity of the year—the July 4 fireworks display on Belleville Lake.

Plans call for shooting off nearly twice as many fireworks as last year with stations being set up on both Fireworks Island in the lake and in the Belleville Cemetery to facilitate this year's show.

Chamber enrolls 4 new members

The Belleville Chamber of Commerce has added four new member businesses to its roster.

Joining the chamber during the past month were Kim Bridenstine, representing Custom Photography; Tom Oliver, representing What Do You Want Done?; Mae Craighead from the Professional Shop and Richard Cox and Edward Palmer of RND Enterprises.

Businesses renewing their memberships are Broughton Aluminum Products, Gondolier Music House, Knob on the Lake Apartments, Michigan Bell Telephone Co., Rawsonville Woods Mobile Estates and Trust Realty.

AIRPORT WORK CONTINUES — The Wayne County Road Commission continues to fence in property along Wayne Road in Romulus for the expansion of Detroit Metropolitan Airport without being sure whether federal funds, which may be needed to pay for the work, will be available. A session is scheduled for May 27 in U.S. District Court in Detroit to determine whether the Road Commission can use $3.9 million in federal funds to pay for work completed on the expansion of the airport. A federal judge banned the use of the funds two months ago citing the lack of an environmental impact statement on the expansion plans as the reason to freeze the use of the money. — The Romulus Roman photo.

According to Owen

Probe 'no witch hunt'

A local state representative assigned to a special legislative investigative force said he is on no "witch hunt" against the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority (HCMA).

State Rep. Gary Owen (D-22nd District), who represents a portion of Romulus along with all of Belleville and Van Buren Township, said he requested assignment to a special committee investigating fund allocation procedures in the HCMA "to be assured the residents of my district receive their fair share of their tax dollars."

The 10-member State House committee was formed under the chairmanship of State Rep. Warren Goemaer (D-Roseville).

Owen said the investigative force is designed more to review the work of the 35-year-old authority and to review its future plans rather than search for wrongdoing.

"There has been some criticism of the HCMA because some claim it doesn't serve the entire area being taxed to finance its operations," Owen said. "The committee will investigate that plan, and naturally, while I sit on it, I will check to see that my constituents receive their fair share."

Owen's district, which includes Ypsilanti and Ypsilanti Township, contains nearly the entire length of the Lower Huron Metropark operated by the HCMA in Van Buren, Sumpter and Huron Townships.

Communities involved in the HCMA, which levies a .25-mill tax to finance its operation, lie roughly in the floodplains of both the Huron and Clinton river systems.

The HCMA operates 10 parks, including Lower Huron. The parks contain 14,471 acres of recreational area. Plans are being formed to add another 3,000 acres of parkland in four separate parks.

Of prime concern to members of the committee will be the request from the City of Detroit that the HCMA take over operations of Belle Isle in the Detroit river as part of its park system.

The take-over of Belle Isle was part of a plan proposed by the HCMA two years ago when the authority requested an increase in millage from voters of the authority's area.

However, that millage was defeated, slowing plans to acquire more parkland.

Administrators of the HCMA said they don't have the feeling the special legislative task force is investigating any irregularities, but indicated they felt the task force was set up to monitor and review the work of an authority which was created more than 30 years ago.

During its 35 years of existence, the HCMA collected more than $90 million in tax funds. Owen said no timetable has been set for the investigation but indicated that hearings probably will be scheduled for mid-July.

He added that he didn't become involved in the committee because of pressure from his constituents, but that he wanted to be assured that the Huron River floodplain is utilized to its fullest extent by the authority in his district.

Kathy fears 'Bandit' may find wilds rough

While many people may consider a raccoon to be a pest, there are some who love the animal.

One New Boston girl, a 16-year-old Huron High School student, has learned to love the little creatures through care of a pet known as Bandit.

But now she's worried, because Bandit, though taken from the wild, has gotten out a cage, and may not be able to cope with existence out of captivity yet.

Kathy Kendrick of 30060 King Road, Huron Township, is hoping that some person in the Huron area finds Bandit, described as a "gentle though excitable pet" wearing a black collar, before the animal does damage to itself.

"I knew when I received him from a friend who had found him that I'd have to return him to the wilds," Miss Kendrick said of the raccoon. "But when this happened, I got concerned, because Bandit isn't ready to go loose yet, particularly while wearing a collar."

Miss Kendrick said that after a year of captivity, Bandit has learned to trust human beings, and will run to the side of persons he may meet along his romp through the township.

However, she cautions persons who may wish to handle the animal to move slowly, since he is excitable and could nip at fingers which approach him too quickly.

"If he's on the ground, I'd hope people wouldn't try to capture him, but simply corral him in a place where he couldn't get loose," Miss Kendrick said.

"If he tries to climb up on their legs, persons could lift him by the back of the neck without exciting him. But they shouldn't worry, since he's had rabies shots."

Miss Kendrick said she is most worried about the creature walking around with a black collar on his neck, since eventually he will outgrow it, and could choke on it if it isn't removed.

In addition the animal also could tangle the collar in brush or on a tree branch and strangle himself that way, she added.

The raccoon escaped sometime between the evening of May 11 and the morning of May 12. Persons who may have seen him, should contact Miss Kendrick at 782-9734.

The animal is described as being about one year of age and light brown in color with a black collar around his neck.

Funeral conducted for youth

Services were held for a Romulus High School National Honor Society student who perished in what police describe as "an unfortunate accident."

Mark Lee Fether, 17, died May 15 on the Hillcrest Sod Farm at 36181 Pennsylvania Rd., Huron Township, when a truck driven by a co-worker at the farm backed over him as his brother watched.

According to reports by the Wayne County Sheriff's Department Road Patrol, the dead youth, and his brother, Gregory, were riding on the back of a flat bed truck used to haul sod at 8:15 p.m. when Mark fell off.

Police said that Gregory shouted "stop the truck, Mark fell off" and that the driver jammed the truck into forward.

Mark was proclaimed dead on arrival at Wayne County General Hospital. Services were held for the Romulus High School junior Monday at Baum Funeral Home.

Interment was at Michigan Memorial Park. Mark is survived by his parents, Arnold and Carol Fether of 13634 Aston Dr., Romulus, Gregory and another brother, Eric, and a sister, Trisha.

Grandparents of the dead youth are Mr. and Mrs. Orman Tuttle of Morenci and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Nearing of Reading.

As we see it

U.S. proves continued strength

What has happened in Vietnam has weakened America. But we can and will recover. We can be stronger than before if we gain a better knowledge of our own strengths and weaknesses as a nation.

And last week President Ford has proven that we are a strong nation and that we will not sit idly by and allow other nations to step on us. The Cambodians now know it. And the rest of the world does too.

President Ford made a very difficult decision in the SS Mayaguez affair, but he has shown that we are strong and that we can't be pushed around.

We are strong because of our enormous wealth of natural resources, a mighty economy, a vast array of modern arms and skilled military people.

More important, we are strong because of the ideals of individualism and popular self-government on which this nation was founded nearly 200 years ago.

Putting our principles into practice has not been easy. The slavery issue caused the Civil War. Urban riots continue in our own time. Poverty remains a major challenge in this country. Large groups share unequally in the American dream.

We are a pluralistic society with plural problems and viewpoints, and we sometimes have trouble reaching agreement on fundamentals.

But the staying power of our principles matches the physical scale of our resources. We are a nation widely regarded around the world as a model. We are showing the way to the world's future.

Our image is a major strength. We devalue and debase it in our own and the world's eyes when we act as though ends justify means.

Then we truly weaken ourselves.

Other nations can play the bully boy better than we can. When we resort to secrecy and dirty tricks, we destroy our vision of an open society dedicated to high ideals.

We have emphasized the negative of anti-communism long enough. We need to be pro-freedom. The nature of other governments with whom we deal is important to us.

We cannot sincerely support any totalitarian government that denies freedom to its own people, even though it may also oppose communism.

The crass opportunism of a Stalin, who started World War II by making a nonaggression pact with Hitler, can be no pattern for us.

After Vietnam, America must raise her eyes to the high places of her history, from which comes her strength.

It is the people themselves that hold the greatness of America in their hearts and minds.

What we need are leaders to trust the people, to trust our own principles, and to have faith that we will prevail in an ever-more dangerous world by living up to the best that is in us.

If we ever lose hold on our moral heritage, we will be adrift indeed.

As they see it

District gov. likes coverage

To the editor: From time to time throughout the past year, as my responsibilities as district governor for the Lions of Michigan have brought me into the Wayne area, friends have presented me with copies of the Belleville Enterprise newspaper.

I would like to compliment the editor for the newsworthiness of this paper. Having spent over a quarter of a century in school administration and service club work, I am all the more cognizant of the philosophy that you have taken to apprise your readers of the good things that transpire in your community and schools.

As district governor for the Lions of Michigan, I particularly compliment you and your chief photographer, Lothar Konietzko, for the extraordinary coverage you have given to our Michigan White Cane Week.

White Cane Week is a concerted effort by the 25,000 Lions members in Michigan to bring about an awareness that, with all of the modern surgery and miracle drugs, there still are blind to be serviced in nearly every community.

If it were possible to have taken your readers with me this past year more than 25,000 miles covered on Lions' business, all designed to help the stricken, the handicapped, the needy, and the blind and then to see how the White Cane gift is used to bring about a new community awareness through service, your hearts would indeed be warmed, like mine.

My personal thanks to you and Lothar for your excellent coverage of this annual, but very important, event.

Ken Lautzenheiser

Coverage lauded

Letter to the editor: The Belleville Area Lions Club greatly appreciates the fine support of the people of this community for their donations to our White Cane Drive from which many blind and visually handicapped people will benefit.

The services of the local Boy Scout Troop, the publicity given by The Belleville Enterprise as well as the help from many other groups greatly helped our drive. With checks still coming in by mail, our White Cane Drive is a success as we have exceeded our goal. Thanks again to all who made this possible.

Has Michigan Legislature thrown in towel?

BY WES THORP
Panax Lansing Bureau

Families who live in school districts where teachers and school boards have a history of not getting along together might take note so they can plan their vacation accordingly.

The Legislature appears to have thrown in the towel in their efforts to find a solution to teacher strikes which are becoming a common phenomena in Michigan.

Legislative efforts to find a legal mechanism to help resolve serious differences between teacher unions and school boards during negotiations for a collective bargaining agreement have fallen flat.

There is nothing to indicate that the Legislature will be able to agree on a measure which will insure that classrooms in public schools will not be closed because of teacher strikes during the school year.

This was acknowledged when House Speaker Bobby D. Crim threw his support behind a bill which recognizes the right to strike for teachers. The Crim-backed bill legalizes what already has been happening each fall when parents and their school-age children are kept in suspense about when and how long they will be in the classroom.

Putting Crim's proposal, which is highly technical in its simplest terms, teacher strikes would be allowed for a specific length of time. After that time, a Circuit Court judge would have the option of ordering the teachers back to school, ordering binding arbitration, or ordering a continuation of the negotiations.

A new catch thrown in by Crim directs that teachers lose a day's wage for every day they strike and that the school district lose a day's worth of state aid for every day of the strike. The goal is to even things out so both sides suffer economically during the work stoppage.

That's the best the Democrats, who have sizable majorities in both houses of the Legislature, could come up with. To develop this particular proposal, both the House and Senate Democratic leaders told lobbyists for the teacher unions and the school boards to lock themselves into a motel room and draft a legislative proposal which would be acceptable to both sides.

When the two sides emerged after several days of "round the clock" bargaining all they could agree on was to legalize what has been happening in school districts around the state. They polished it up by making it easier for a Circuit Court judge to declare that a teacher strike is causing irreparable harm to the children and therefore the teachers should return to the classroom.

However, it can be recalled that last year several Circuit Court judges ordered teachers back to the classroom and in some situations the teachers just ignored the order.

The case which comes most immediately to mind is Garden City where teachers thumbed their noses at the Wayne County Circuit Court and even dared the judge to keep them in jail for contempt of court. The Garden City teacher strike continued until Gov. Milliken threw the weight of his office into the controversy and told both sides to start bargaining, or risk the loss of millions of dollars in state aid.

Speaker Crim, earlier this year, attempted to develop a formula for teacher-school board negotiations which — on paper, at least — would have made it very difficult for teachers to strike legally. It was designed to balance the bargaining process so neither the teachers or the school boards would have an unfair advantage.

As a result, neither side liked it.

Indochina analysis

Why did the 'Mayaguez' affair erupt?

By TOM OCHILTREE
Panax Washington Correspondent

While all the world was watching, the communists involved in the seizure of the American container ship Mayaguez came out of that mysterious incident with a great loss of face.

Conversely, the freeing of that American merchant ship and her crew nullified some of the humiliation suffered by the United States when members of American diplomatic missions had to flee Cambodia and South Vietnam now in Red hands.

Much still remains obscure about why the "Mayaguez affair" erupted off the coast of Cambodia, but one central fact stands out.

The sailor-marine-airman teamwork at the heart of U.S. Navy amphibious operations functioned with first team efficiency. With the draft long over, the American forces involved were all professionals, and they functioned that way. John Paul Jones, Stephen Decatur and David G. Farragut must be smiling to themselves as they pace some quarterdeck in the sky.

Now that the smoke has settled, diplomats in Washington and other world capitals are trying to piece together the behind-the-scenes story of this hard-to-explain incident.

At first glance sole responsibility for this reckless adventure would seem to fall on the shoulders of Khmer Rouge leaders, drunk with power from their conquest of Cambodia. Armed Cambodians certainly were the ones who boarded the Mayaguez in the first place.

But were they being manipulated by some outside agency — say, the Russian KGB? There is no proof of this and if there was outside intervention it might not come to light until historians in the next century get a chance to study various government archives.

Conceding the speculative nature of the subject matter, some non-communist diplomats, nevertheless, believe there may be an element of fact in a scenario that goes like this:

The collapse of the non-communist governments in South Vietnam and Cambodia was so swift and complete as to damage, in the minds of many third world people, the image of the United States as a great power.

Hanoi continues to gloat over America's discomfiture, by representing the following propaganda line over and over again by press and radio:

"The Vietnamese people's strength has crushed the aggressive forces of U.S. imperialism, the most powerful imperialist chieftain and the most vicious enemy of mankind, and has upset its counter-revolutionary global strategy, thus making an important contribution to the offensive posture of the revolution."

Events in Indochina undoubtedly shocked American public opinion. From the Kremlin's point of view it would be important to find out how much, if any, American morale had been damaged.

Soviet policy continues to support detente with the United States so long as Moscow can see some political and commercial advantages from that arrangement, so any testing of American reflexes would have to be done carefully.

What better way, students of the problem ask themselves, than to have the KGB trigger their contacts inside the Khmer Rouge to pull something like the Mayaguez stunt?

If the United States had taken such an affront lying down that would have told the Russians one thing. Instead Moscow learned exactly the opposite on the basis of President Ford's quick and tough reaction.

But for the Russians there may have been a second and even more important angle involved in the Mayaguez affair. The Khmer Rouge looks upon Communist China rather than Moscow as its primary ally.

Since there is no love lost between Moscow and Peking, anything the Soviet secret police could do to draw the Chinese Communists into a confrontation with the United States would be a Russian plus.

Bodenmiller-Hill vows read at St. Anthony's

St. Anthony's Catholic Church in Belleville was reserved for the spring wedding of Diane Marie Hill and Gary Ray Bodenmiller. The young couple repeated their vows at 6:30 p.m. before the Rev. Robert Sable and some 240 assembled relatives and friends. The bridegroom's brother, Ernest Bodenmiller of Belleville, was narrator for the occasion.

For the April 25 ceremony, the altar was appointed with two vases of blue and white carnations and daisies and an arrangement of potted palms. Mrs. William Emerson was at the organ to play traditional wedding music.

The double-ring rite united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Hill of 12466 Van Allen Drive, Belleville, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Irving G. Bodenmiller of Wexford Street, Belleville.

Escorted to the sanctuary by her father, the bride appeared in a toe-touching gown of sateau and carried a colonial bouquet of white daisies and baby's breath. The dress, designed with a high notched neckline on the little fitted bodice, was frosted with Venice lace and seed pearls. The lace motif was repeated on the long sleeves which belled below the elbow.

Completing her bridal finery was a silk illusion veil which drifted to mid-back length from a crescent cap of lace and seed pearls.

The bride's sister, Laurie Hill, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were two former classmates of the bride, Sandy Griggs of Ypsilanti and Mrs. Dwight Porterfield of Belleville, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Gregory Hill of Brooklyn, Mich.

The foursome appeared in identical powder blue dotted swiss frocks accented with daisy lace on the little fitted bodices. Styling details on the dresses included square necklines and long belled sleeves. They carried pink, yellow and blue daisies and baby's breath formed into colonial bouquets and wore matching blooms in their hair.

Best man was the bridegroom's college roommate, Bob Matkovic of Ypsilanti. Groomsmen were Steve Price and Perry Drake of Ypsilanti, both former classmates of the bridegroom, and Gregory Hill, the bride's brother of Brooklyn, Mich.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hill chose to wear a gown of seabreeze green tulle with matching shoes and handbag. Her corsage of pink baby roses was pinned at the shoulder. The bridegroom's mother donned a yellow polyester gown with which she wore black accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

Among the 240 guests attending the reception which followed at the Hilton Inn at Metro Airport were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Hennells of Ypsilanti.

The newlyweds spent a week honeymooning in Hawaii and now are making their home in Franklin Hills, a suburb of Chicago, Ill. where the bridegroom is employed by United Air Lines at O'Hare International Airport.

The new Mrs. Bodenmiller graduated from Belleville High School in 1970, attended Eastern Michigan University and prior to her marriage was employed in the electrical engineering office at the University of Michigan.

Her husband graduated from Belleville High School in 1969 and earned his degree in business administration from Eastern Michigan University.

The rehearsal dinner, hosted by the bridegroom's parents, was held at Hillside Inn of Plymouth with 20 in attendance.

MR. AND MRS. GARY R. BODENMILLER

Folk singer featured at Home Arts banquet

In keeping with the "use of local talents and facilities" as she explained at the opening meeting of the Home Arts Club year, Virginia Turney program chairman, reserved Belleville's Woodstone Inn for the annual May banquet.

Forty members and guests sat down to dinner at 6:30 p.m. after a welcome from the president, Sharon Matthews, and grace by Mildred Baker. Guests introduced were Carolyn Hyde, Eleanor Merecki and Jean Bearance.

Invited to entertain for the evening was Joy Powers, a kindergarten teacher at Haggerty Elementary School. Mrs. Powers first told of her childhood in Kentucky and described her family background. She then sang several mountain ballads and folk tunes accompanied herself on two traditional instruments, the dulcimer and auto harp. Her choice of songs included some written by her aunt, Jean Ritchie of New York, who has recorded her works, and a round in which the group was asked to join.

Mrs. Matthews then presented her co-officers, Mildred Baker, Jean Ferguson, Muriel Wolfe, Angela Hampton and Virginia Turney, with gifts of apothecary jar candles. She also announced the results of the April election. Incoming officers for the 1975-76 year are Mildred Baker as president, Beverly Eichold as vice-president, Sherry Budd as recording secretary, Betty Vincent as corresponding secretary, Eunice Kause as treasurer and Avis White as program chairman.

Concluding the party was the presentation by Mrs. Baker of a thank you gift from the club to the outgoing president, Mrs. Matthews.

On golden wedding

Former residents honored

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gauvreau was marked Saturday with a mass of thanksgiving at St. Aloysius Catholic Church in Romulus, followed by a reception at the VFW Hall in Garden City.

The couple's eight children and their spouses planned the celebration which included 150 relatives and friends. Two members of the 1925 wedding party in attendance were Mrs. Gauvreau's sister, Margaret Mennel of Huntington Woods who was maid of honor, and her husband's nephew, Doug Trudeau of River Rouge, the best man.

Presiding at the church service was The Rev. Ted Wypeiski, former assistant pastor of St. Aloysius, who came from St. Barbara's parish in Dearborn for the special occasion.

The Gauvreaus were married May 19, 1925 at St. Leo's Catholic Church in Detroit and resided in Romulus for about 32 years before moving to Homestead, Fla. RIBBON CUTTERS — Several county and Huron Clinton Metropark Authority (HCMA) members were on hand recently for the ribbon cutting ceremonies at the new Oakwoods Metropark near Flat Rock. HCMA Commissioner William E. Kreeger (from left) of Wayne County mans the scissors while John T. Lesinki, chairman of the Wayne County Public Works Committee; Thomas Welsh who represents Macomb County and a governor appointee to the HCMA board; George F. Killeen of the Wayne County Board of Commissioners; James A. Rutherford who represents Washtenaw County, and James Beers of the State Department of Natural Resources offered encouragement. The new park brings to 10 the recreational facilities maintained by the HCMA.

Belleville joins plan of employing students

A chapter on off-campus employment in a book not only has put the name of Ruth Burson in print, but also won Belleville a niche in print.

The community is one of several Western Wayne and Washtenaw County cities and townships that has joined with Eastern Michigan University (EMU) in an off-campus employment program under the direction of Ruth Burson.

An employee for EMU since the early 1950s, she became involved in the hiring of students for on-campus positions in 19 the 1960's. By 1962, the program was expanded to the College Work-Study Program, financed with some federal funds.

She has manned the job of finding work for students and adapted to the peak years of employment when 5,397 students were holding down 7,321 jobs with about one-fifth of the positions off-campus.

Although the economic conditions have affected hirings this year, she still is looking for work for the students.

"I encouraged our local people to use our students from the beginning," Mrs. Burson said.

Student employment opportunities are available, except through the College Work-Study Program, to any student at EMU, not just those who qualify for financial aid.

"Any student who wants to work should have assistance provided to him or her, regardless of financial need," emphasizes Mrs. Burson.

She points out that students derive other benefits than just financial aid from working.

"On-the-job experience provides the opportunity to explore, from a practical perspective, theoretical academic learning, thereby making knowledge meaningful," she continued. "The student serves an apprenticeship in a profession while attending college and proves his marketable skills.

"Upon graduation he is in an advantageous situation, because his degree has greater value."

Grant applicants sought by school

Applicants now are being sought for the Carl T. Renton Scholarship Fund, awarded to a deserving Huron High School graduate.

The third grant-in-aid, established in memory of the late assistant superintendent and long-time official of the Huron School District, offers assistance to a segment of the student population not served by scholarships.

Scholarship will play a small role in the awarding of the grant, since of most interest to the selection committee will be that the applicant has a definite goal in mind and knows how to achieve it, that he or she can earn a part of his or her expenses and that he or she has a record of service to the school and/or community.

Once selected, the recipient will be assisted for up to four years as long as he or she continues to meet the original criteria. The recipient also will receive up to $500 per year, depending on total expenses.

Applications and further information can be obtained from Ellen Weaver, a Huron High School counselor.

The deadline for completion of applications and letters of reference is May 29.

The recipient will be announced during commencement exercises June 9.

Lodge prepares for legion meal

The lodge's new officers are in full swing, handling the operations of the organization. Serving as president is Alvin Carothers, with LeRoy Schmeltz as junior governor, Charles Morton as prelate, John Johnson as treasurer, Clyde Bower as 3-year trustee, George Steger as secretary, Emmett Mills as past governor and Clifton McGuire and Deryl DeBilzan as trustees.

Classes develop senses

Belleville-area residents are invited to a series of 2-hour classes on developing their "psychic awareness" starting at 7 p.m. Tuesday at 47266 Denton Road.

Rene Federman of Taylor will offer residents a chance to understand themselves better by conducting the courses, which will discuss extra sensory perception among other topics.

Information on the courses can be obtained by calling either 697-4182 or 291-5369.

Troutt proclaims Muscular Dystrophy month

Romulus Mayor Terry Troutt has called upon residents of the community to help in the efforts of volunteers collecting donations during Muscular Dystrophy month, now through June 15.

"I urge each citizen as he is able to join with the Muscular Dystrophy Association Inc., in the fight to find the cause and cure of this relentless crippler," Troutt said in signing the official proclamation recently.

Heading the collection drive in Romulus will be Elvera A. Fischer who said contributions can be made by contacting her at 721-6367.

More than 30,000 volunteers in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb, Monroe, and St. Clair counties are being sought to conduct a house-to-house solicitation for Muscular Dystrophy (MD) on June 3 from 5 to 9 p.m.

The volunteers, identified by Jerry Lewis badges, will seek funds to support medical research and patient services for all area muscular dystrophy victims presently under the care of the Greater Detroit-Southeastern Michigan Chapter of Muscular Dystrophy Association.

MD, as yet incurable, primarily attacks children and is nearly always fatal.

The local MD chapter, headed by Mrs. Ira G. Kaufman, provides all essential services to MD patients in the greater Detroit area. Services include diagnostic evaluation, lab tests, physical and occupational therapy, genetic counseling, braces, wheelchairs and miscellaneous medical services, all free of charge. In addition to these services, the association supports worldwide research to find a cure for this tragic disease.

CALCULATING CALVIN'S CORNER.

Betcha didn't know. Being something of a numbers nut, your old friend Calculating Calvin took a poll the other day. And it moved my digit back about three spaces when I discovered an awful lot of people don't realize that you can become a Triple-A member and get all the club services (84 in all) without buying Triple-A's well-known Exchange Car Insurance.

TripGuard pays off. Some people overlook it, but you get some terrific personal protection with a Triple-A membership. Every member, for example, automatically gets TripGuard Protection, which pays up to $200 if you're involved in a collision which disables your car more than 100 miles from home. (This is to help reimburse you for extra food, lodging, car rental and commercial transportation expenses brought on by collision.) Last year Triple-A paid TripGuard claims totaling $37,500.

Personal Accident Policy. Every member also gets a personal accident policy which provides coverage in case of accidental death or injury in connection with travel or recreation. (And here's an interesting fact: The policy also provides accidental death benefits of $1,000 for children under 16 living at home.) But an accident could never happen to you or your kids, right? Well, last year Triple-A paid off personal accident claims totaling $481,160. The year before that we paid a total of $663,723. So accidents do happen.

Bail Bond. You'll never need bail bond, right? Well, last year Triple-A advanced $94,268 in bond money on behalf of its members. Mostly for minor speeding violations in neighboring states who won't accept your driver's license as bond, but who will accept your Triple-A membership card. Thanks to bail bond protection, exactly 2,714 members drove off happily (and a little more slowly) into the sunset last year without having to be detained in jail.

So why not check with a Triple-A membership representative? A Triple-A membership card is really going to save you a lot of money and grief. This is Calculating Calvin bidding you a fond adieu, which is a little nicer than a cheese fondue.

Memorial weekend traffic heaviest since '73

If Michigan motorists keep up this year's in-state tourist travel pace, the Memorial Day weekend could have the heaviest traffic since the same 1973 holiday when a record 707 million miles were logged on state roads, according to Automobile Club of Michigan (AAA).

Last Memorial Day weekend, when fears of gas shortages still persisted, Michigan motorists traveled an estimated 657 million miles on state highways.

"Admittedly fuel shortages caused a travel slump in early 1974, but our records show that 1975 Michigan routings are running 52 percent ahead of the same period in 1973 when energy crisis problems had not significantly materialized," said Joseph Ratke, AAA touring manager.

Compared to 1974, Lower Peninsula routing requests increased 83 percent for the 1975 January-April period. Upper Peninsula routings jumped 53 percent with a 12 percent increase recorded for Mackinac Bridge crossings in the first four months of this year.

The Memorial Day weekend officially begins at 6 p.m. Friday and ends at 12 a.m. Tuesday. Peak travel times during the 78-hour holiday will be from 7 to 10 p.m. Friday, when most motorists head for holiday destinations, and from 2 to 10 p.m. Monday, the major return-home time.

"Frustrating traffic delays can be minimized if motorists begin trips before or after these time periods," Ratke said. The AAA official noted that the advice is recommended especially for travelers along I-75 between Bridgeport and Saginaw. That 18-mile stretch is the only major area in the state where motorists may find traffic problems due to highway work.

"Although work will be suspended over the Memorial Day weekend, I-75 will be narrowed from three to two lanes at several points due to overpass construction, he said. Gas availability is one problem that motorists should not encounter this holiday.

AAA's most recent "fuel gauge" survey shows all stations checked along major tourist routes open daylight hours Monday through Saturday with 88 percent operating Sunday. Nearly half of stations surveyed are operating after 9 p.m. daily, and an average 212 percent stay open past midnight. Last Memorial Day weekend, based on AAA's survey, holiday motorists found an average 80 percent of stations operating during the day, about 23 percent after 9 p.m. and 11 percent after midnight. Regular fuel now sells for an average 57.2 cents per gallon along major tourist routes, 2.2 cents less than a year ago.

State names detours to avoid traffic delays

For Western Wayne County residents planning to travel this Memorial Day weekend, knowing where detours and construction sites are along Michigan's state highways may help to stave off delays.

There will be three detours in effect on highways in the state during the weekend, and 12 other construction areas not requiring detours, but which could cause traffic slowdowns.

The three detours are M-57 and M-54 in northern Genesee County; M-103 between Mottville and the Michigan-Indiana border in St. Joseph County; and US-23 Business Route south of Rogers City in Presque Isle County.

Twelve major construction areas, although shut down for the holiday weekend and not requiring detours, could cause minor traffic slow-downs.

They are: -I-75 in both directions from near Bridgeport north to Bay City, a 22-mile section where widening of seven overpass bridges narrows traffic from three to two lanes at the sites; -I-94 from US-23 south of Ann Arbor, east to the Wayne County line for widening and interchange reconstruction;

-I-94 throughout Wayne County has intermittent closures of the inside-median lane due to construction of concrete median barriers to replace existing guardrails;

-I-75 has one southbound lane closed at the Davison Freeway in Detroit; -I-94 at the Black River in Port Huron, one lane closed due to repair of bridge deck; -M-97 at the Clinton River in Macomb County, one lane closed due to repair of the bridge deck; -M-97 (Groesbeck Highway) at 11 Mile Road in Macomb County for bridge reconstruction for I-696; -M-3 (Gratiot Avenue) at 11 Mile Road in Macomb County for bridge construction for I-696; -M-14 in Plymouth and Livonia for widening; -I-94 between Jackson and Parma in Jackson County; -I-75 from the Ohio state line to the Wayne County line for intermittent widening projects, and; -I-96 and I-696 in the Novi-Farmington Hills area for interchange construction.

Bicentennial panel seeks centennial farms

Four members of the Van Buren-Belleville Bicentennial Historical Committee are in the process of researching early settlement families, centennial farms (those in same family for 100 years) and settlement homes (those homes 100 years old) for the upcoming Bicentennial celebration.

Centennial farms in the area are Smith on Denton, Robson and Smith on Tyler and Robbe in French Landing, but public assistance is needed to locate settlement homes.

Anyone living in or knowing of a home 100 years old or older should call 699-7986 or 697-4051 to arrange for a review of the home. Some settlement homes in the area are Renton on Martinsville, Riggs on Huron River Drive and Riggs on Savage Road. There are numerous ones in the township but help is needed in locating them.

Also needed is information pertaining to the descendants of people known to have settled the area in the 1890s. Anyone who may be a descendant of the following families or know someone who is, should contact a committee member as soon as possible.

Relatives of families to be located are N. or P. Sundburg, J. McKinstry, C. Horner, T. Leonard, S.W.

Earing, C. Stanley, T. Clark, Pauline Vorhies Jr., the Dalrymple family, the D. Savage family, the J. Pullen family, the M. Hulett family, the H. Mc-

Daugherty family, the A. B. Corkins family, the S. Forbes family, Arden H. Ballard, Hiram Millsbaugh, Henry C. Post and Jason Tyler.

the area history are Cathy Horste, chairman, Van Buren Township; Delphine Dudick, Van Buren; Diane Wilson, Belleville; and Connie Etter, Belleville.

Telephone numbers to call with information are 699-7986 and 697-4051.

They back census

Several Western Wayne County legislators and elected officials are promoting pending state legislation calling for a mid-decade census which could increase substantially state aid allotments to area communities.

A bill in the Senate's Municipalities and Elections Committee, if passed, would authorize a 1975 census and in effect put many suburbs west of Detroit in line for substantial increases in state aid due to population growth since 1970.

A census normally is taken at the beginning of each decade.

"Since local communities receive state funds on a population basis, this legislation would guarantee almost major increases for cities and townships in Western Wayne County," said County Commissioner Royce E. Smith, author of a resolution, adopted by the County Board of Commissioners, urging enactment of the Senate bill and a companion House bill.

Smith noted that "all of Western Wayne County has gained substantially in population...and we are being penalized as long as our true population is not reflected accurately and currently."

Smith's county commission district includes Belleville and Van Buren Township.

The Senate bill (No. 126) was introduced in February by Westland Democrat William Faust and four other senators. Rep. Thomas H. Brown (D-Westland) was the author of the House bill, urging similar legislation there. Smith estimates that all of the communities in Western Wayne County, with the exception of Canton Township, have doubled in size since the last census in 1970. He said Canton "probably has 2½ times the population it had in 1970."

Under the proposed legislation, the mid-decade census would be conducted by the Secretary of State and would allow any political subdivision receiving state funds to request a population count.

It is possible that more names should be added to this list and if any resident believes his family to be early settlers, they should contact a committee member with any information available, a committee spokesman said.

Students take part in contest

Two Romulus High School students will be among those competing for honors in the State Championship Plymouth Trouble Shooting Contest today.

Fred Burcroff and Brian Currie will represent Romulus High and the Thompson Chrysler-Plymouth dealership at the Oakland Mall in a contest designed to test high school students' aptitude for finding mechanical trouble in automobile engines.

Burcroff, 17, lives at 35000 Grant Road, Romulus, while Currie, also 17, lives at 13187 Hannan Road, Romulus.

More than 2,000 schools from throughout Michigan have entered students in regional competition. The winners of that competition will be narrowed down in today's contest.

Winners from Michigan, and other states throughout the nation, will be entered in the National Finals of the trouble shooting contest in Detroit June 16-18.

Teams consist of two students. They are assigned a car in which a series of malfunctions deliberately have been placed. The teams race the clock and each other to correct all malfunctions and to restore the car to perfect running order.

Winners of the contest can earn college scholarships and their schools can receive aid for shop programs from the corporation.

Students from Huron High School in New Boston taking part in the contest will be David D. Blount, 18, of 22135 Merriman Road, and Lawrence J. Will, 18, of 18477 Merriman Road. Their instructor is Dennis L. Jacobson of Belleville.

Romulus still alive in tourney

By TOM MOORADIAN
Ent.-Roman Sports Editor

Romulus finally got a break, an important one at that. Trailing 2-0 against Ann Arbor Pioneer, Romulus rallied Saturday for two runs in the seventh to tie the game, then scored in the extra inning to win a 3-2 decision to stay alive in the Class A District Baseball Tournament.

"We finally got a break," said Romulus Baseball Coach Dennis Stoh, who is rounding out his first year as the head diamond strategist. "Pioneer threw the ball away — like we have done a couple of times this season — and we managed to cash in on the error."

"But, I have to say this, our boys never gave up. They were down 2-0 in those late innings and fought right back. We played super baseball those last two innings."

Stoh hopes that the momentum will carry over to the Bedford Temperance game, the Eagles' next district challenger. The two teams will play their pre-district game on Saturday at Bedford in White Park. Game time is 2 p.m. "I don't know very much about them," Stoh added. "But they always produce fine teams."

Pioneer scored once in the fourth and again in the fifth before Romulus retaliated. In that crucial seventh, Bob Griffin kept the Eagles' ambers burning with a sharp single to right, then Jerry Goodman walked.

What turned out to be the key play of the game followed: George Butler laid down a sacrifice bunt but Pioneer hurdler Frank Wagner in his eagerness to nail the lead man threw wide of his target allowing Griffin to score.

Don McMann then fanned, bringing pitcher Rick Britz to the plate. Britz put down a perfect squeeze, scoring Goodman with the equalizer.

In the eighth, Moore started things off with a single, then was sacrificed to second by Barton, setting the stage for Kelly who didn't miss the opportunity and smacked a game-winning single.

Britz went the distance, struck out eight and walked four in scattering three Pioneer hits. He registered his eighth win of the season.

Wagner, the losing hurdler, was tagged for six hits — two each by Kelly and Griffin and a double in the third by Mickey Ruffolo. Wagner struck out six and walked one.

Griffin and reliever Johnny Myers combined on a 3-hitter to beat Dearborn Heights Robichaud 3-1 on Friday. Griffin worked the first 3 & one-third innings, struck out seven and walked four. He was tagged for one hit.

Romulus scored two runs in the fourth when Butler walked, was sacrificed to second by Dave Johnson and came home on a single by Mike Morrison. Morrison stole second and came around when Ruffolo singled.

The Eagles put an insurance run on the scoreboard in the fifth thanks to Kelly's second hit of the ball game, a single. He then proceeded to steal second but was erased when Griffin bounced into a fielder's choice.

Butler's triple scored Griffin.

Earlier in the week Romulus evened up its record to 8-8 on the season as Britz checked in with a 10-4 triumph over River Rouge.

Britz whiffed 10 and walked three en route to his seventh win in nine starts. He also carded his 76th strikeouts in 37-one-third innings on the mound.

Moore and McMann led the assault as the two Romulus sluggers split four hits between them. McMann, a sophomore, belted a triple and counted two runs batted in.

Stoh's bid to beat his Alma Mater fell short as Riverview emerged on top of a 7-6 score. Myers, who relieved starter Griffin, was charged with the loss.

Griffin left after 3-one-third innings, giving up six runs. Myers finished up and went 4-one-third, losing in the eighth when Riverview scored an unearned run.

Romulus tied the game in the bottom of the fifth when the Eagles rallied for four runs. Moore started the rally with a single, then Jay Barton walked and Mike Kelly was hit by a wild pitch, loading the bases.

Three successive bases on balls — to McMann, Griffin, Butler and a wild pitch-scored the next three runs.

The 6-all deadlock was broken in the eighth.

"We lost this one the way we have a few others," Stoh said. "We played fine ball, then had one key breakdown and our rivals cashed in on it."

In with a single

While Glenn's first baseman tries to salvage an errant throw, Belleville's Mike Stanley sneaks under the stretching player to check in with a single. Stanley and the Tigers couldn't muster enough hits against Glenn and lost a 3-1 pre-district qualifying round. It means the host won't be represented at the Class A district tournament which Belleville will stage on May 31. — Photo by the Enterprise-Roman Chief Photographer Lothar Konietzko.

15 first places, 3 records help South to shatter Cambridge

Fifteen first place finishes and three records set the tone as the Belleville South track team ran over Cambridge Junior High, 114-18.

Freshman Chris Koger carried his share of the weight, winning four events he entered. Koger took the high jump at 5 feet 4 inches; the 440-yard dash in 58.2, the 60-yard dash in 7.3 and ran on the winning 440-yard and 1-mile relays.

Also running on the 440-yard relay was Bob Cook, who earlier had taken first in the shot put (41 feet, 2 inches), and in the 60-yard high hurdles, going 8.6.

He finished just ahead of teammates Russ Bearance and Scott Straight.

A school record was set in the 880-yard relay. Brian De Rousse, Mike Koski, Brian Brinkerhoff and Terry Turrentine were clocked in 1:41.1.

Dexter Hubbard tied the school record for the 100-yard low hurdles at 12.2; while Doug Sheldon set an eighth-grade mark in the 880-yard run with a time of 2:15.0.

Mark Sienko also set a school record in the mile run with a time of 4:59.4, finishing ahead of teammates Bob Oakley and Gary Roach at 5:24 and 5:26, respectively.

Along the way, South scored 1-2-3 sweeps in seven events; the shot put, long jump, 60-yard high hurdles and the 60, 75-, 100- and 200-yard dashes.

"In a few events, Cambridge had some good runners who served to push our kids," Coach Dave Medley said.

"We're looking forward to our meet against Haston next week."

South will take on unbeaten Haston at 3 p.m. today on the high school track.

Boat registration law confuses some

The new watercraft registration law was passed last year by the Michigan Legislature to raise funds for statewide water safety programs and watercraft law enforcement activities.

Many Michigan boat and canoe owners evidently are unsure about how the new watercraft registration law affects them. That report comes from several Secretary of State branch offices around the state, as people begin getting their watercraft out of storage and ready for use.

The uncertainty exists because the new law does require that many formerly unregistered boats must now be registered.

All motorboats must be registered. In this category, pontoon boats and motorized canoes are charged a flat $7.50 fee for three years, regardless of size. Other motorboat fees are based on length, ranging from $7.50 for motorboats under 12 feet to $240 for those more than 50 feet.

However, a number of boats still are exempt from registration. Exempted are:

- non-powered boats under 12 feet;
- non-motorized canoes not used for rental or commercial purposes;
- boats 16 feet or less which are hand-powered by oars or paddles and not used for rental or commercial purposes.

Other non-powered boats at least 12 feet long — including sailboats — generally are not exempt. The registration fee is the same for all boats in this category — $4.50 for three years.

The changes include eliminating the old "Boat Plate Law," so there is no longer a special boat license plate required for the Great Lakes or connecting waters.

3 clinics to be held

If you're interested in gymnastics, basketball or cheerleading, then you'll be interested to know that Northern Michigan University (NMU) will be offering clinics during June and July.

The gymnastics clinic for junior and senior high school girls 12 years and older is slated for June 15-21; the basketball clinic for high school girls 14 years and older is set for July 27 to Aug. 1, and the workshop for junior and senior high school cheerleaders and prospective cheerleaders is scheduled for July 27-31.

Staffing the gymnastics clinic will be NMU's head coach Lowell Meier, whose 1975 team posted a 10-1 dual meet record, and Ludington High School Girls' Coach Pat Jensen, the 1975 Michigan Coach of the Year.

Cost of the clinic is $89 on campus and $59 for girls who live at home. The registration deadline is June 1.

Directing the cage clinic will be Del Parshall, head coach of the women's team at Northern, and heading the clinic staff will be Betty Nilsson, head girls' coach at Ewen-Trout Creek High, the 1973 Michigan Class "D" state champions and 1974 runners-up.

Basketball clinic costs are $90 on campus and $55 off campus with the registration deadline on June 15.

The International Cheerleading Foundation, the most highly-trained in America, headed by founder and director Randy Neil, will staff the cheerleading workshop. Fees are $70 on campus and $40 for those who live at home. Registration deadline is July.

Further information may be obtained by writing Conference Department, Northern Michigan University, Marquette, 49855.

Please bring the foregoing to the attention of persons whom you know would be interested in this matter.

A lot of people are looking into ways to beat inflation these days.

And that's one of the reasons many people are looking into a new home these days.

Given the economic trend of recent years, almost any sound, well-located home is likely to increase in market value over the years.

As such, a home can often prove to be a sound hedge against inflation.

Many homes that sold for $25,000 ten years ago, for example, are selling for $40,000 to $50,000 today.

Tax break.

In addition to a possibly appreciating investment, you also get a tax break when you own a home.

Under present law, both your property taxes and mortgage interest payments are tax deductible.

And that's in addition to the new tax credit of up to $2,000 which may be available to you under the Tax Reduction Act of 1975.

Lower interest rates.

Interest rates on home mortgages have been declining recently.

Couple that with the advantage of buying in a buyer's market and you can see why more and more people are looking at new homes today.

Mortgage money is available.

We have more of it to loan right now, in fact, than any bank in town.

We also offer you the convenience of being able to apply for a mortgage loan at any NBD office, and close at an NBD office in your neighborhood in as little as two weeks after approval. Which are two more reasons more people come to us for their mortgage loan than any other bank in town.

If you're considering a new home, why not visit your nearby office of National Bank of Detroit.

We'll be happy to tell you how much your mortgage will cost, what your monthly payments are likely to be, and answer any other questions you might have.

Which is another reason we make more mortgage loans than any other bank in town.

Meet surveys potential

Western Wayne County members of Parent-Teacher Associations (PTA) will find that Atlantic City, N.J., will be where the action is next month when the organization meets for its national convention.

The theme of the meeting will be "Turn PTA Potential into PTA Power" to emphasize action to the anticipated 2,000 conventioners.

According to Lillie E. Herndon, National PTA President: Taking action to promote the welfare of children and youth has been the motivating force behind the national PTA's 78 years of achievement.

"This year's convention theme further expresses our dedication to action and our firm conviction that the PTA has unlimited potential which must be translated into power to serve the children and youth of our nation."

"As the world's largest volunteer organization devoted to this purpose, we are convinced that an action-oriented movement comprised of seven million members can be highly effective as advocates for the better education, health, and safety of the young, helping to ensure a more promising future for them all."

"This convention will highlight our current programs, indicate future directions for our organization, and provide the opportunity for members to actively participate in the formulation of the National PTA's priorities for the coming year," she added.

Programs for the convention will feature speakers from the fields of education, communications, and health, including the Honorable Terrel H. Bell, U.S. Commissioner of Education, who will present the keynote address, entitled: "Parenting and the Public Schools."

The 1975 convention will focus on the special needs

Citizen may register to vote while getting driver's license

Beginning July 1, Belleville - Romulus residents will join the rest of the state in being permitted to register to vote at any office of the Secretary of State, instead of only at city governmental offices.

A bill providing for the new registration procedure recently was signed into law by Gov. William Milliken.

The measure permits Michigan residents to fill out a voter registration application when applying for or renewing their driver's licenses.

Milliken said the program would reach all those persons currently eligible, but not registered to vote, "without jeopardizing the securities needed to insure accurate vote counting."

The new law is intended to encourage voting by making it easier to register. It will reach 90 percent of all Michigan residents within any 3-year period, supporters claim.

A resident would fill out an application when renewing his driver's license. That would be sent to the local clerk, who would verify it and send the person a voter registration certificate.

The measure also is intended to help clerks keep up-to-date records on active voters.

States, and "Making the PTA Count in School Finance."

Highlights of the business sessions at the convention will include the election of new national officers for 2-year terms, and the presentation of proposed resolutions to delegates, for action.

No state tax check? Better check into it

If you filed a state income tax form before March 1 but still haven't received a refund, you have due cause to be irritated, says the State's Individual Income Tax administrator.

"We're right on schedule with the refunds, but I'm sure there could be specific returns lost in the mail or through processing," said Kurt Gemalsky.

"If you've waited more than eight or 10 weeks for your refund, you should call or write us about it," he said. The telephone number is (517) 373-2922 and the address is Individual Income Tax Division, Treasury Department, Lansing 48922.

Gemalsky said the Treasury Department has been mailing out about 32,000 refund checks a day and now is working on

The Belleville Community Players are planning a production of "Plaza Suite" to be held June 20 and 21 in the Belleville High School returns filed in mid-March. All returns filed before that time should be processed by now, if they "go through routinely," he added.

"About 16 percent of the Auditorium.

Based on the Broadway and movie productions of Neil Simon's play, the show will be comprised of three separate 1-act plays.

returns kick out for various reasons, like if they are incomplete and those take from 10 to 20 days longer to process," he said.

Returns filed at the April 15 deadline should have refunds in the mail beginning June 20.

The administrator said returns are being processed much quicker this year than in 1974. About 1,900,000 have been processed since Jan. 1, as opposed to 1,008,000 for the same time period last year.

Gemalsky added that the 1974 slowdown was due to a new computer which experienced mechanical problems.

Bill to provide vet ed benefits

State Sen. William Faust of Westland has introduced legislation providing educational benefits to Michigan Vietnam veterans and their families.

Faust's bill would grant dependents of a Vietnam veteran killed or lost in action, or a prisoner of war, free tuition at any state-supported university or college. The bill also would grant those Vietnam vets who served nine months or more, a 10 percent reduction on the same instructional and general fees.

Faust, a Democrat, said that "the federal government allocation of $270 a month granted over a 36 month period is not enough for those dependents and veterans who are or want to attend school."

"Costs are just too high. Both the dependent and the veteran must work in order to make ends meet. My bill would provide them with the needed money for tuition and living expenses," he said. "I've received many complaints (on the problem) and it is time this problem is resolved."

Garden plots ready

Garden time is here and if you are a senior citizen you're in luck.

Westland Parks and Recreation Department and the Wayne County Services to the Aging are offering free lots to senior citizens who want to start their own gardens.

By calling the Parks and Recreation Department at 722-7620, senior citizens can reserve a 20-by-40-foot lot to plant a garden. The county supplies the land, situated in Westland, and readies it for spring planting. Citizens need only the garden tools and seeds.

If a person needs planting instructions, representatives from the Michigan State Cooperative Extension Service and the Bureau of Outdoor Recreation will be available at a workshop scheduled for later this spring.

Any Wayne County senior citizen can reserve a lot.

For additional information call the Westland Parks and Recreation Department or Wayne County at 224-0950.

Two collect degrees

Two residents of the Belleville - Romulus community have been awarded honor degrees from Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo.

John T. Thompson of High Street, Belleville, collected a bachelor of science degree in industrial arts while Ann C. Mac-Donald of Tobine Road, netted a bachelor of arts degree in social work.

The degrees were awarded last month during commencement exercises. Honors degrees were presented to those students who compiled grade point averages of 3.5 or better on a 4.0 scale.

Any Wayne County senior citizen can reserve a lot.

For additional information call the Westland Parks and Recreation Department or Wayne County at 224-0950.

June brides may need a helping hand in setting up their first kitchen. They may receive beautiful dishes, glasses and flatware for wedding gifts, but not have a frying pan to use for breakfast. Here is a checklist to help the new bride get her kitchen together.

Use this list as a starting point. Choose items you'll need daily, not fancy gourmet items. Choose items with many uses, as a strainer that can be used as a colander.

For Preparation

Plastic mixing bowl
Set of dry measuring cups
Glass cup for measuring liquids
Metal measuring spoons
Rubber scraper
Cutting knife (long, narrow-handled)
Paring knife
Rotary Beater
Can opener with corkscrew

Grater

For Baking

Small roasting pan
Loaf pan (9x5x3 inches)
2 round layer pans (9x 1 1/2 inches)
Cookie sheet
Wire cooling rack
Potholder For Top-of-the-Stove
9-inch skillet
1-quart covered saucepan
3-quart covered casserole
